

A hand-drawn black outline of a roof profile. The profile features a central gable with a slightly lower, wider section on either side, creating a stepped appearance. The lines are thick and irregular, suggesting a hand-drawn sketch.

DACH 3

A hand-drawn black outline of a roof profile, similar to DACH 3 but with a different gable shape. It has a central gable with a slightly lower, wider section on either side, but the gable is more pronounced and the overall shape is more rounded at the top. The lines are thick and irregular, suggesting a hand-drawn sketch.
